

WELCOME TO THE ROSS VALLEY PLAYERS

Now celebrating our 80th season!

The Ross Valley Players is the oldest continually operating community theatre on the West Coast. Created in 1930 as a way to escape the hardships of the Depression, the theatre has introduced live theatre to countless Bay Area residents over the years.

With offerings that range from traditional to alternative, RVP continues to be a place where seasoned professionals and gifted amateurs can experiment and grow. We pride ourselves on the quality of our productions, which have been consistently honored with Dean Goodman and Bay Area Theatre Critics' Circle nominations and awards.
